Mandatory Provisions

3. Situation of Registered Office

3.1 The Registered Office of the Organization will be situated in Bomet, Kenya.

4. Nature of Organization and liability Nature of Organization

4.1 The Organization is a non-governmental organization registered under the Act.

Liability of Members

4.2 The liability of the Members is limited to KES 100.

Contribution of Members to Assets on Winding Up

4.3 Every Member of the Organization undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Organization in the event of its being dissolved or wound up while he is a Member, or within one year of his ceasing to be a Member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Organization contracted before he ceases to be a member, and the costs, charges and expenses of dissolution or winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves, such sum as may be required not exceeding the sum of Shillings five hundred only (KES 500).

5. Main Objects

5.1 The Organization has the following main object:

- i) To enhance the educational and professional development of university students, skilled craftspeople, and youth and children in African communities by facilitating cross-border mobility and exchange programs, thereby fostering cultural exchange, skill development and regional integration.

Specific Objects

5.2 And in furtherance of the principal object, the Organization shall have the following ancillary objects and powers:

5.2.1 provide training to individuals and communities while also being in association with the opportunity to act globally to network with people worldwide, so that the commitment can be pursued to establish and implement ideas of sustainability.

5.2.2 The basic idea is to give future generations the opportunity to acquire knowledge to deal with themselves and their environment in a more sustainable way (more resource-conserving and climate-neutral). This can be achieved through workshops, events, trade fairs and other forms of exchange. Among other things, the handling of consumer goods should be thematized and the possibilities for alternatives to some materials should be made possible.

- a) Plastics, as the product that currently has the greatest impact on water bodies of all kinds, should be recycled or, if possible, avoided completely.
- b) Plastics should be labelled according to the type of plastic so that all producers and consumers are able to clearly identify them and thus return them to a recycling process.
- c) The aim is to give plastic waste a value so that society can visualize the usefulness of reusability.

5.2.3 To act and live in a socially competent and responsible manner be lived. (in the old statutes this was the last sentence of §2 point 2)

5.2.4 A key area of action is working across continents. For example, in the form of (pupil exchanges), student or craftsman exchanges, which make it possible to network different cultures and cultural circles with one another. This makes it easier to process, accept and implement new ideas. An environment is created in which actors complement and fertilize each other.

5.2.5 Cooperation with like-minded organizations should be sought. In the case of projects for which there is consensus between the two organizations, it is possible to work towards joint implementation.

5.2.6 The members of the association, who express their ideas, wishes, and hopes, should act together according to the guiding principle expressed by the association's name "Implementing sustainable thinking" (Nachhaltiges Denken Umsetzen), should act together and co-operate with those outside the association. They are therefore responsible for sustainability. Ideas can only be realized within this framework.

5.2.7 The realization of sustainability in all aspects should be made possible by the association, government entities and other bodies as may be deemed expedient to promote any of the objects of the Organization.

5.2.8 To raise, secure, and utilize funds for the attainment of any or all objects of the Organization, and to do such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of these objects.

Adjournment of meetings

12.16 The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if so, directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time and to another place.

12.17 The only business that may be transacted at any adjourned meeting is the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

12.18 When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.

12.19 Except when a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, it is not necessary to give a notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Voting by show of hands.

12.20 At a General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands. A declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the Organization, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against the resolution.

Voting rights of Members

12.21 Every Member present in person or by proxy or representative has one vote.

Vote of the chairperson at General Meetings

12.22 In the case of an equality of votes the chairperson of a General Meeting is entitled to a second or casting vote.

Objections to voter qualification

12.23 No objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter except at the meeting or adjourned meetings at which the vote objected to is given or tendered.

12.24 An objection to the qualification of a voter must be referred to the chairperson, whose decision is final.

12.25 A vote not disallowed according to an objection as provided in this Constitution is valid for all purposes.

Mode of meeting for Members

12.26 The General Meeting of the Organization shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall appoint and may be conducted with participation by Members in person or means of conference call or other communication facilities as permit all Members participating in the meeting to hear each other simultaneously and such participation shall constitute a presence at a meeting of the Members as if those participating were present in person.

Resolution in writing

12.27 A resolution in writing signed by all Members, excluding Members who have been given leave of absence, is to be treated as a determination of the Members passed at a meeting of the Members duly convened and held.

Form of resolution in writing

12.28 A resolution in writing may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by all the Members and if so, signed it takes effect on the latest date on which a member signs one of the documents.

12.29 If a resolution in writing is signed by a proxy of a member, it must not also be signed by the appointing Member and vice versa.

12.30 In relation to a resolution in writing a document generated by electronic means which purports to be a facsimile of a resolution of Members is to be treated as a resolution in writing and a document bearing a facsimile of a signature is to be treated as signed.

13. Proxies and representatives Proxies and representatives of Members

13.1 At meetings of Members a member may vote in person or by proxy. A Member, which is a corporation, may appoint an individual as a representative.

Voting at Board meetings

14.8 Questions arising at a Board meeting must be decided by a majority of votes of Directors present and voting,

Chairperson at meetings

14.9 The Chair shall preside as chairperson at every meeting of the Board.

14.10 If there is no Chair or if at any meeting, the Chair is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if being present, the Chair is unwilling to preside, the Board may choose a director present to chair the meeting.

Chairperson's vote at Board meetings

14.11 In the event of a tied vote at meetings of the Board, the chairperson has a second or casting vote.

Participation where Directors interested.

14.12 A Director must disclose any interest to the Board at a meeting in which the proposed contract is being taken under consideration. A Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of the Board must not do either of the following:

14.12.1 Be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting.

14.12.2 Vote in respect of that matter or that proposed resolution.

14.13 A Director may still execute on behalf of the Organization any document in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he or she is interested.

Validity of acts

14.14 All acts done by a meeting of the Board or by a person acting as a director are valid even if it is later discovered that there is a defect in the appointment of a person or that they or any of them were disqualified or were not entitled to vote.

Minutes

14.15 The Board must cause minutes of all proceedings of General Meetings and of meetings of the Board to be entered, within one month after the relevant meeting is held, in books kept for the purpose.

14.16 The Board must cause all minutes communicating changes in the organization or in any other way relevant to the Regulator to be so filed with the Regulator within 14 days from the date of the meeting.

14.17 The Board must cause all minutes, except resolutions in writing treated as determinations of the Board, to be signed by the chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings took place or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting.

15. Directors' Remuneration Payment for expenses

15.1 Directors may be paid all travelling, accommodation, and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the Board or General Meeting or otherwise in the execution of their duties as Directors.

Directors' fees

15.2 Subject to clauses 15.3 and 15.4, the Directors are not entitled to any remuneration by virtue only of their position as Directors.

Payment for services

15.3 A Director who, with the unanimous approval of the Board, other than the Director or Directors affected, is called upon to perform extra services or to make a special exertion or to undertake executive or other work for the Organization beyond or outside of the Director's ordinary duties or is engaged to provide any other service, may be paid a fee for those services, exertions or work. Such transactions must be reported in the annual report of the Organization as related party transactions.

15.4 The amount may be paid either by fixed sum or in such other manner as is determined by the Board.

16. No alternate Directors

16.1 No Director is entitled to appoint a person to act as an alternate Director for them.

16.2 Board Vacation of office

16.3 The office of Director becomes vacant if any of the following occurs:

16.3.1 If a receiving order is made against him or he makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors.

16.3.2 If the Director becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health.

16.3.3 If the Director is absent without the consent of the Organization from the meetings of the Board held during a continuous period of six months.

16.3.4 If by notice in writing to the Organization he resigns his office.

16.3.5 If he is removed from office by a resolution duly passed under clause 11.2.

16.3.6 If he is a member and is removed from Membership of the Organization pursuant to a resolution of the Organization under clause 7.4 hereof.
